

INSIDE 96
OFFICE FOR URBAN LIVING

A Holiday Retreat
With Panoramic Views.

Exclusive Holiday Home in Montafon

The location

Montafon, Silbertal

Peace and Panoramic Views in the Montafon

Silbertal is one of the more authentic villages in the Montafon, combining alpine tranquillity with an impressive mountain backdrop. At an altitude of around 1,444 metres and in the immediate vicinity of the Kristbergbahn mountain station, the holiday home enjoys a particularly privileged setting defined by peace, privacy, and far-reaching views.

The surrounding area is characterised by nature, open space, and a high level of recreational value. Hiking trails, mountain tours, and a wide range of leisure activities begin practically on the doorstep. At the same time, the Montafon offers numerous opportunities for sport, outdoor experiences, and relaxation throughout the year.

The property remains conveniently accessible via the municipal/cooperative road or the Kristbergbahn, while still conveying the feeling of being pleasantly removed from everyday life.

This location therefore combines alpine exclusivity with the diversity of one of Vorarlberg's most beautiful holiday regions.

A Place Where Everyday Life Grows Quiet

Holiday Home Kristberg

In the morning, the first view is of the surrounding mountains, while a peaceful stillness still rests over Kristberg. The day begins without any rush – perhaps with a coffee on the terrace before heading straight out into nature. Hiking, time together, a few quiet hours at the house, and in the evening, once again, that special sense of space and endless views.

Inside, warm materials, plenty of wood, and a cosy atmosphere create an immediate feeling of arrival. Whether with family or friends, there is just as much space for shared moments as there is for personal retreat.

The result is a holiday home that is much more than simply a place to stay – it is a place to slow down, experience time more consciously, and feel a little more at home with every visit.

Alpine Living Quality Across More Than 220 m²

Holiday Home Kristberg

A Home for Time Together

With around 220 m² of living and usable space, this holiday home combines generous proportions with alpine character and a high level of comfort. Natural materials, warm wooden surfaces, and the exposed roof structure create a calm and sophisticated atmosphere.

Several bedrooms comfortably accommodate up to 10 guests while still providing plenty of space for privacy and retreat. The layout is complemented by several bathrooms, spacious living areas, and a fireplace that adds an extra sense of warmth and comfort.

Large windows open up views of the surrounding mountain landscape, making the house a special retreat for spending time together, relaxing, and enjoying the peace and tranquillity.

Special Features at a Glance

Holiday Home Kristberg

Exclusive, Peaceful Location

Privacy at around 1,444 metres above sea level

Thoughtful Layout

Generously planned and clearly structured

Fully Serviced

Electricity, water, sewerage & internet available

Fireplace & Premium Materials

Alpine atmosphere with oak & larch

Smart Controls

Heating & shutters conveniently controlled via app

Barrier-Free Showers

Open and comfortably designed

A Retreat of Exceptional Quality

Holiday Home Kristberg

The holiday home on Kristberg combines peace, a sense of space, and comfort in a truly special way. It is a place for time together, quiet moments, and days that are allowed to move at a slower pace.

Whether enjoying the mountain views in the morning, spending the day surrounded by nature, or relaxing in the warm atmosphere of the house in the evening, it quickly creates the feeling of leaving everyday life behind and reconnecting with what truly matters.

A retreat that does not need to impress loudly, but convinces through its location, atmosphere, and unmistakable sense of home.

Images can only hint at the beauty and exclusivity of this exceptional holiday home. Its true quality, unique atmosphere, and attention to detail can only be fully appreciated when experienced in person.

INSIDE96 - Office for urban living
Your contact:
Joe Welte
Südtirolerstraße 21, 6830 Rankweil
joe.welte@inside96.at +43 664 4120 196

